ABOUT ME

I am a Full Stack Developer skilled in the MERN stack, building responsive web applications with React, Node.js, Express.js, and MongoDB. Driven by curiosity in technology, I am now learning Artificial Intelligence to build AI-powered applications, combining my full-stack foundation with emerging AI integration skills.

I combine my full-stack foundation with emerging skills in AI integration, RAG, and LLM-powered features to build the next generation of intelligent web applications.

EDUCATION

MAHENDRA INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY (autonomous) 2025 - 2029
